

Weekly News Summary.

Vermont.

A foot of snow fell in Lamoille county last Friday.

Two capital of the national bank of Vermont is $7,980,000; circulation, $6,312,170.

The house of correction now contains fifty-eight persons—fifty-one men and seven women.

The musical convention at St. Johnsbury failed to pay expense, the loss being about $300.

The Grand Army has gained eighteen posts and one thousand members in the state during the year.

Twenty-five German carp have been put into Fairlee lake. These fish grow to weigh from fifteen to twenty pounds.

St. Johnsbury has been seriously afflicted with diphtheria and some deaths have occurred. Some cases still exist there.

Mrs. LUCRETIA A. WALKER, widow of Rev. Dr. Charles Walker, died at her residence in Pittsford, Monday, in her eighty-fifth year.

GEORGE A. FORTY of Charlotte bought 900 barrels of apples this season, and he estimates the apple crop in Charlotte at about 1,300 barrels.

The catalogue of Middlebury college shows forty-two students—eight seniors, eight juniors, seven sophomores, thirteen freshmen and six special.

The first gold ingot from the Plymouth mine is worth $1,021. It was made on the October clearing up, and the November product is expected to be larger.

The Valde marble company, with a capital stock of $300,000, has been organized at Rutland to work a quarry near the Espananza quarry at West Rutland.

Dogs are making and havoc with sheep. In Tisbury one man recently had eight killed in a single week. In Stratford two farmers lost forty sheep from the same disease.

TAYLOR J. FARMER, a blacksmith living just north of Rutland, died suddenly at the Central house November 27th. Farmer had been drinking heavily for the last few days.

MR. JOHN P. HOWARD's gift of a rectory for St. Paul's, Burlington, was conditioned on the parish's raising $2,000 to properly furnish the building. The amount has now been subscribed.

The discovery was made the other day of another attempt to burn the Pine street school-house in Burlington. Matches, dried leaves and paper were found in a corner by the teachers.

The mail carrier from Pownal Center entered the church during Thanksgiving service and shouted, "Postmaster, what shall I do with this mail?" A smile was visible on the postmaster's face.

GOVERNMENT SURVEYORS have been examining locations for two light-houses on both sides of the channel between Grand Isle and North Hero. They are much needed and should be built without delay.

The Vermont Sewing Machine Company of Bellows Falls, owing to a decrease in orders, have been obliged to discharge a number of hands and reduce their working hours from eleven to eight for the present.

SWANSON has a four days' musical convention this week at Ballou's of Lowell, Mass., conducts it, Miss Anna Ballard acts as pianist, Miss Mary L. Ballard (child pianist) participates in the convention, and an orchestra is present.

It appears that young Sherwin, who left Brattleboro so mysteriously about a week ago and was last heard from in Springfield, wrote to a Boston man that he was on his way to Augusta, Ga., where he expected to engage in business.

WILLIAM GILMAN L. Grant of Stockbridge was getting a load of wood, recently, the load was slipped over in such a manner as to throw him under it, and he was crushed to death. He was a former resident of the town of Lincoln, and was fifty-eight years of age.

RECEIVED HEADQUARTERS of the Vermont national bank states that the aggregate amount of claims filed against that institution is $208,000. This is exclusive of the claim of some $20,000 deposited in the bank of trust company funds, which has not yet been allowed by the receiver.

P. GILBERT's little girl, aged about five years, was killed at Rutland November 27th. She, together with several other children, was playing about a mortar box resting against a fence. In some way the box was overturned and fell upon the little girl, crushing her to the earth.

Two Albany citizens had some young cattle in a back pasture that became so wild during the past season that they could not be driven or caught. Recently, a dozen men with a greyhound were sent to the pasture to catch them about fifteen miles, they were all captured.

BARNARD people must have excitement. The story of the killing of the panther, some three years since, is being told and retold. A fox bearing a curious life. He catches and kills turkeys with impunity while the natives bring their guns within short range and blaze away at him without effect.

An attempt was made to blow open the safe in the store of W. T. Tenney & Son at West Randolph, Monday night, November 26th. Two holes were drilled into the safe and two others started, when the burglars were evidently frightened away. Appearances indicated that they were amateurs at the business.

MR. S. B. SANIN of Wallingford has in his possession a powder horn yellow with age, having been in the Sablin family many years. It bears on its side the following inscription: "P. 1723" (a Masonic emblem) "MORRIS," a ship, flowers, and other marks, all of which is done in an artistic manner. Its history is unknown.

NORMAN TAYLOR, the locally noted Plymouth pianist, who trained himself for a runner over his native hills, has at last won a professional sawdust race, a fifty-mile go-as-you-please, at Philadelphia. Taylor made sixty-six miles in twenty minutes short of the twelve hours and the other contestants gave up. Taylor is fifty-three.

ON Thanksgiving day Mr. C. L. Hinds and wife of Chester went to Cambridgeport to spend the day, leaving his place in charge of an orphan nephew, Edward Hinds, about seventeen years old, whom he had taken this far to live with him. When Mr. Hinds returned at night he discovered the absence of the boy, together with the money $400 and $500 in gold and several bank books.

While Edix Bacon, a middle-aged farmer of Chelsea, was leading home a heifer, the heifer turned upon him, hooked him severely over the right eye, and then running, dragged him along the ground, scampers and ran and hair from the scalp for a space of three inches or more. When found, directly after, he was insensible, and scarcely recovered his senses during the day.

THE Rutland Herald says of that village: "There are several young men in this place, members of respectable families, who are frequently in the habit of getting intoxicated, and in this deplorable condition swaggering around the streets until unbecomingly hours of the night. Should the police arrest them and lock them up until sobered, it might give them a needed lesson and aid in their reformation."

THE extensive barns and outbuildings of George Campbell, in Westminster, were burned Friday night, with their contents, including sixty-four blooded asses. Loss nearly $10,000; insured $2,500 in the Libanman Fire Insurance Company. Mr. Campbell has for years been noted for his blooded sheep, shipping yearly large numbers West for stock-raising. The buildings were the most extensive of any in the county. The dwelling was saved. Cause of fire unknown.

A CURIOUS case is in the hands of the Vermont national bank of Brattleboro. A man giving the name of Driscoll, who lived there many years ago, and has since wandered in Australia and many other parts of the earth, is trying now in California to collect a $600 or $700 draft from the bank. He has not been able to identify himself satisfactorily to the California banks and a photograph of himself, which he has sent on, is declared by those who knew Driscoll to bear no resemblance to him.

THE Pierpont monument is now in place in the new cemetery, Vergennes, in the center of the family plot. It is simply plain, massive and solid, like him whose name it bears. Voids of wreath, flourish or emblem, it stands a monument of the taste of the bar of Vermont, by whom it was erected. The base is of hard granite, about twenty-two feet high, and consists of two bases, die, cap and a spire. The four sides of the die are finely polished. On one side are the words, "John Pierpont Chief Justice of Vermont died Jan. 7, 1822, at 72."

It was intended, probably, to discard all punctuation, but the engraver placed a period after "Jan." and "A." On the opposite panel are the words, "Erected by the Bar of Vermont."

The weight of the monument is between eight and nine tons, and cost about six hundred dollars.

Other Localities.

THE estimated decrease of the public debt for the month just closed will be $1,750,000.

At Chicago, all the railroads but the Michigan Central have adopted the "twenty-four o'clock" system.

RAYMOND, the Boston excursion man, is taking the winter building a $200,000 winter hotel at Los Angeles, Cal.

GOVERNOR NEWELL of Washington Territory has signed the woman's suffrage bill, and the law is now operative.

GENERAL ROBERTSON has prepared an amendment to the constitution relating to the abolition of polygamy.

THERE is great excitement throughout Western Montana over the rich mineral discoveries in Cedar Dale mountains.

A LETTER from Yakutsk says the czar of Russia has promoted and rewarded all those who assisted the Japanese survivors.

SOJOURNER TRUTH, the colored lecturer, died in Battle Creek, Mich., November 26th, at the age of one hundred and eight years.

CARL SCHULTZ has retired from the New York Evening Post because the confining and somewhat grinding work of the editor is irksome to him.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, has become disgusted with the new standard time, and the city council has unanimously voted to return to the old system.

A CYCLOPS, which passed to the south-east of Portland, Me., on the other night, completely wrecked three farm-houses and a number of outbuildings.

In making improvements in Plymouth, Mass., the graves of Pilgrims who came over the Mayflower and were buried during the first winter have been discovered.

PATRICK O'DONNELL has been convicted of the murder of James Carey and sentenced to death. He will remain in Newgate, where he will be hanged, probably on December 17.

THE masonic temple, Sixth Avenue and Twenty-third street, in New York city, was partially destroyed by fire on Saturday and badly damaged by water. The loss is estimated at about $100,000.

CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG said "Home, Sweet Home," to the convicts in an eastern prison, and it so worked upon them that seven of them escaped and struck out for the parental roof-tree the same night.

At Allen's factory, Marion county, Alabama, two officers attempted to arrest William Sharkey for insuring a woman. In the encounter both officers and Sharkey were killed—all within ten minutes.

THE chief of police of Milwaukee has received a letter threatening him with assassination, and adding that the town would be burned, if he was not soon furnished the large number of workmen now idle.

EIGHT blocks of stone were placed upon the railway track near Wolverhampton, England. It is surmised that they were placed there for the purpose of wrecking the train in which Mr. Gladstone was expected to travel.

GOVERNOR MURRAY of Utah is reported as saying that sooner or later there will be a collision between the Mormons and the government. During the present year, 2,800 Mormon immigrants have arrived at Twenty-one persons.

REV. WARREN H. CUDWORTH, pastor of the Church of Our Savior (Unitarian), East Boston, dropped dead last week Thursday of heart disease, while offering prayer at the union service in Maverick Congregational church.

THE reviews of the current English version of the Old Testament have strengthened the final stages of their work, and it is probable that not more than six months will elapse before the result of their labors is placed in the hands of the English-reading public.

Among the pupils in a school at Montgomery, N. Y., are a couple who were married three months ago. The husband is eighteen and the wife seventeen years old. When school opened for the winter term they came with the school, as they did before, and they are regular attendants. They live with the wife's parents.

THE ship Thomas Dana of Boston ran down the French brig Rousley just outside the British Channel shortly before six o'clock on the morning of October 30th. The Dana was saved, including the Rousley's second officer, a few of her crew and the rest passengers. She was bound to St. Milo, having in all 110 souls on board.

A FAMILY in Mt. Gilead, Ohio, numbering four persons, was poisoned the 27th ult., and for a time it was thought that none could recover. They had eaten cabbage soup for dinner, and on investigation was found that the soup had been used to dress some turnips in the cabbage when in the field. A physician found arsenic in large quantities in the soup.

A "SPECIAL DISPATCH" double-headed, and filling two columns in the Boston Globe, purporting to give an account of the massacre at Kharum was made up bodily in the fact, and was without any foundation in fact. The enterprising attaches of the paper sold it to a number of western papers, and the Boston newspaper men are making merry over the affair.

An accident on the New York elevated railroad occurred on the city hall branch Friday morning. A train of two cars, in which were thirty passengers, mostly ladies, was derailed in some way at Chatham Square. The heavy iron beams forming the guard rail were splintered into pieces of the size of a tooth-pick by the wheels of the cars and locomotive. No one was hurt.

PROFESSOR BROOKS of the Red House Observatory, Phelps, N. Y., while searching for comets near the sun, last week Thursday evening, discovered a wonderful shower of telescopic meteors, some of which were moving southward and others northward. Brooks believed this display had some connection with the remarkable red light seen near the sun at sunrise and sunset last week, and that the meteors were passing through a mass of meteoric dust, is enveloped on the tail of a gigantic comet.

A MOMENTARY excitement was caused at the Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, last week Monday, by the strange movements and startling appearance of a well-dressed man of thirty years, who announced that he was a Kentucky colonel who had come East with the express purpose of killing President Arthur. He was ordered away by the detectives and left the hotel.

THE circumstances, however, of a story that led to extra detective precautions during the banquet at Delmonico's, which the president attended.

FIRE broke out in the Windsor theater, Bowers, New York, shortly before twelve o'clock last week Thursday night, the flames spreading with terrible rapidity, and a few moments after the alarm had been sent out the whole structure was a blaze from cellar to roof. The efforts of the fire department were unavailing to check the conflagration, and the building was totally destroyed. A Thanksgiving audience, which packed the house from pit to box, had been dismissed only a short time before the flames appeared.

SUPERINTENDENT KIMBALL'S annual report shows that the life-saving service is kept up to its high standard of efficiency and has done good work the past year. The number of lives saved was 417 and the value of property $5,671,700, which is over two and one-half millions more than was saved in the preceding year. Since 1871, when the system was introduced, 15,324 lives have been saved and twenty-four millions of property. These figures fully demonstrate the value and necessity of the service. No money appropriated from the national treasury is better spent than that required for the support of the life-saving service.

I HAVE been very much benefited by one fifty cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. When I began using it my catarrh was so bad I had headache most the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter. That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since to amount to anything. Please send me two more bottles. John H. Summers, Springfield, Mass.

THE best remedy for its purpose I have sold. John Hooker, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

AN article of real merit. C. P. Alden, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

THOSE who use it speak highly of it. Geo. A. Hill, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

CREAM BALM has given satisfactory results. W. F. Draper, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

MOTHER SWAN'S WORM SYRUP.—Infallible, tasteless, harmless, cathartic; for feverishness, restlessness, worms, constipation. Twenty-five cents.

CONSUMPTION CURED.—An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, he will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. ROYCE, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

Literary Notices.

THE DAY OF SEVEN ISLANDS AND OTHER POEMS, by John Greenleaf Whittier. Boston: Houghton, Mifflin & Co. Price $1. (One of the finest tributes in this volume is that to Mrs. H. B. Stowe on her seventieth birthday. One of the most tender and beautiful sketches is that of the aged Longfellow, sitting thoughtfully in his study, and almost catching the children's voices which, all over the nation, in honor of his birthday, were singing his poems. For sale by Phinney.)

Houghton, Mifflin & Co. of Boston have published a new little book, entitled "Portraits of the Authors of the American Catalogue of the thousands of books they publish, under the names of the authors arranged alphabetically, and in many instances describes the books or gives their contents. It contains portraits of several of their distinguished authors—Aldrich, Hans Christian Andersen, Bjornson, John Burroughs, Cooper, Dickens, Emerson, Fielder, Bret Harte, Hawthorne, Holmes, Howells, James, Longfellow, Lowell, Owen Meredith, Scott, Scudder, Steadman, Mrs. Stowe, Bayard Taylor, Tennyson, Charles Dudley Warner, Mrs. Whitney and Whittier. In addition to the names of the authors, and the titles of their works, the book contains a list of the following writers: Agassiz, Bacon, the British poets from Chaucer to Wordsworth, Dr. John Brown, Bryant, Bryan's Translation of Homer, Carlyle, White and Phoebe Cary, James Freeman Clarke, Joseph Cook, Richard H. Dana, Jr., De Quincey, John Fluke, Goethe, Mrs. James, Sarah Orne Jewett, Starr King, Lucy Larcom, George H. Lewis, Macaulay, Montaigne, Mulford, Parton, Pascal, Miss Phelps, Adelaide Proctor, Saxe, J. C. Shairp, Mrs. Thaxter, Thoreau, George Ticknor, Whipple, Richard Grant White, and hundreds of others. This catalogue will be sent free to any one requesting it.

Randolph.—Rev. R. G. Boghee has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Congregational church here, and moved into the parsonage last week. There was no religious service at this place on Thanksgiving day.

W. Fargo was in Boston last week. J. D. Barker and family of St. Albans spent Thanksgiving week with S. W. Dimick.

Colonel J. B. Mead returned from Chicago only three days ago. He was in the city on Saturday. E. H. Stoddard of North Brookfield, Mass., was in town last week, looking up last books.

ONE EXPERIENCE FROM MANY.—I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense—no one seemed to know what ailed me—that I was compelled to try a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them, unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unusual, but when told the story they were helped me, they said, "Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made me much better and we happy."—The Mother.

Business Notices.

Don't Miss It!—Wells' "Rough on Rats." Almanac at druggists or mailed for two-cent stamp. E. S. Wells, Jersey City.

You make no mistake in trying N. K. Brooks' Iron and Quinine Bitters. Sold by C. Blackley, Montpelier, Vt.

"DR. BENSON'S Celery and Chamomile Pills, for the cure of neuralgia, are a success."—Dr. G. P. Holman, Christiansburg, Va. Fifty cents at druggists.

BUY B. H. Douglas & Sons' Capsicum Cough Drops. They are combining the best of the Dropper to the taste and will cure your colds. D. S. and trade mark on every drop.

SKINNY MEN.—Wells' Health Renewer "renews" the vitality, cures dyspepsia, impotence, sexual debility. One dollar.

LADIES are peculiarly subject to colds. They can find relief in the use of Wilson's Malaria and Quinine Bitters. They live with the wife's parents.

THE ship Thomas Dana of Boston ran down the French brig Rousley just outside the British Channel shortly before six o'clock on the morning of October 30th. The Dana was saved, including the Rousley's second officer, a few of her crew and the rest passengers. She was bound to St. Milo, having in all 110 souls on board.

A FAMILY in Mt. Gilead, Ohio, numbering four persons, was poisoned the 27th ult., and for a time it was thought that none could recover. They had eaten cabbage soup for dinner, and on investigation was found that the soup had been used to dress some turnips in the cabbage when in the field. A physician found arsenic in large quantities in the soup.

A "SPECIAL DISPATCH" double-headed, and filling two columns in the Boston Globe, purporting to give an account of the massacre at Kharum was made up bodily in the fact, and was without any foundation in fact. The enterprising attaches of the paper sold it to a number of western papers, and the Boston newspaper men are making merry over the affair.

An accident on the New York elevated railroad occurred on the city hall branch Friday morning. A train of two cars, in which were thirty passengers, mostly ladies, was derailed in some way at Chatham Square. The heavy iron beams forming the guard rail were splintered into pieces of the size of a tooth-pick by the wheels of the cars and locomotive. No one was hurt.

PROFESSOR BROOKS of the Red House Observatory, Phelps, N. Y., while searching for comets near the sun, last week Thursday evening, discovered a wonderful shower of telescopic meteors, some of which were moving southward and others northward. Brooks believed this display had some connection with the remarkable red light seen near the sun at sunrise and sunset last week, and that the meteors were passing through a mass of meteoric dust, is enveloped on the tail of a gigantic comet.

A MOMENTARY excitement was caused at the Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, last week Monday, by the strange movements and startling appearance of a well-dressed man of thirty years, who announced that he was a Kentucky colonel who had come East with the express purpose of killing President Arthur. He was ordered away by the detectives and left the hotel.

THE circumstances, however, of a story that led to extra detective precautions during the banquet at Delmonico's, which the president attended.

FIRE broke out in the Windsor theater, Bowers, New York, shortly before twelve o'clock last week Thursday night, the flames spreading with terrible rapidity, and a few moments after the alarm had been sent out the whole structure was a blaze from cellar to roof. The efforts of the fire department were unavailing to check the conflagration, and the building was totally destroyed. A Thanksgiving audience, which packed the house from pit to box, had been dismissed only a short time before the flames appeared.

SUPERINTENDENT KIMBALL'S annual report shows that the life-saving service is kept up to its high standard of efficiency and has done good work the past year. The number of lives saved was 417 and the value of property $5,671,700, which is over two and one-half millions more than was saved in the preceding year. Since 1871, when the system was introduced, 15,324 lives have been saved and twenty-four millions of property. These figures fully demonstrate the value and necessity of the service. No money appropriated from the national treasury is better spent than that required for the support of the life-saving service.

I HAVE been very much benefited by one fifty cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. When I began using it my catarrh was so bad I had headache most the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter. That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since to amount to anything. Please send me two more bottles. John H. Summers, Springfield, Mass.

THE best remedy for its purpose I have sold. John Hooker, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

AN article of real merit. C. P. Alden, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

THOSE who use it speak highly of it. Geo. A. Hill, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

CREAM BALM has given satisfactory results. W. F. Draper, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

MOTHER SWAN'S WORM SYRUP.—Infallible, tasteless, harmless, cathartic; for feverishness, restlessness, worms, constipation. Twenty-five cents.

CONSUMPTION CURED.—An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, he will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. ROYCE, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

headache since to amount to anything. Please send me two more bottles. John H. Summers, Springfield, Mass.

THE best remedy for its purpose I have sold. John Hooker, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

AN article of real merit. C. P. Alden, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

THOSE who use it speak highly of it. Geo. A. Hill, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

CREAM BALM has given satisfactory results. W. F. Draper, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

MOTHER SWAN'S WORM SYRUP.—Infallible, tasteless, harmless, cathartic; for feverishness, restlessness, worms, constipation. Twenty-five cents.

CONSUMPTION CURED.—An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, he will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. ROYCE, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at 18¢. Factory cheese sold at 12¢, 13¢, and dairies at 10¢ to 11¢; eggs, 20¢ to 22¢.

VERMONT MARKETS.

WATERBURY.—There was very little doing in butter on Monday, but that which was brought good prices. There was no special change in prices from last week.

RICHMOND.—Winter butter sold at 20¢, and October butter at